Mr. James O. Macy

Dear Mr. Macy:

This concerns your letter of 3 January 1977 addressed to the Honorable George Bush at the United States Senate. Mr. Bush was not a United States Senator. Since he was formerly the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, your letter was forwarded to this Agency. It arrived here after Mr. Bush's departure from CIA on 20 January. In view of the fact that its message was not intended for this Agency, I return it herewith and suggest that you might wish to direct your inquiry to Senator John Tower or Senator Lloyd Bentsen.

Sincerely,

LS/

George L. Cary
Legislative Counsel
